Traditional Christmas
Cutrock
Available late November

At Christmas time people come to Candies of Merritt from all over Ontario. It's not just for the best hand-made chocolates around or the incredible selection of gifts and collectibles. They also come for the truly old-fashioned Christmas cutrock and candy canes. What makes a Candies of Merritt candy cane so different? Simply the care they take in making every one. Each batch is made from scratch and every one of the thousands of candy canes they make each year is pulled, rolled and crooked by hand. "We don't use any machines," explains Bruce Merritt, "it's all done the same way my Grandfather Yurchuk learned to do it over 100 years ago."
